SUMMARY

I'm Neeraj Singh Rajpurohit — a passionate Full Stack Web Developer and MCA student at Presidency University, Bangalore. I love turning ideas into interactive, real-world web applications. I've developed dynamic projects like gym management systems, quiz platforms, and e-commerce UIs using technologies like HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, Python (Flask), Java (Servlets), and MySQL. I'm driven by a strong focus on clean code, responsive design, and building scalable digital experiences that make an impact.
